

Snowdonia, North Wales Trip - 17th to 19th February 2012

Organiser : Andrew Russell

Email: stormraven53@btinternet.com

Mob No. 07425 149264

VENUE : THE GMC HUT - 'CEFN GOCH' - SNOWDONIA

Information <http://www.thegmc.org.uk>

Cefn Goch is situated on the outskirts of Deiniolen village below the N.W. slope of Elidir Fach, approximately 3 miles by road from Llanberis. The full address is Cefn Goch, Gallt-y-Foel, Deiniolen, LL55 3EF. The OS map reference is 5833-6252, 1:50,000 sheet 115.

When purchased by the Gloucestershire Mountaineering Club in 1962 the building had been a pair of quarrymen's cottages and conversion has been carried out mainly by club members, with improvements continuing over the years.

Facilities:

Mains electricity, water and drainage are connected. Storage heaters are installed.

Four 2-tier bunks (8 places) or One 2-tier bunk plus 2-tier Matrazenlager (total of 10 places)

Fully fitted kitchen with electric hobs, oven, microwaves, fridge, kettle, toaster, cutlery, crockery, cooking utensils etc.

Dinning room in a separate room with coal fire.

Washing & Toilet facilities - 2 washrooms each with 2 basins, electric water heater, WC, electric showers. Plus an additional Unisex WC and shower.

Local Amenities:

Deiniolen village (1/2 mile) – Groceries (open till around 10pm); two pubs (though they don't do meals); fish & chips. Llanberis is approximately 3 miles by road, 2 by footpath – Groceries, outdoor equipment shops, tourist info. Path to Llanberis starts 5/8 mile along the Dinorwic road from the Hut. Look for the F/P sign on right 500 yds beyond the de-restriction sign.

Access to the Mountains:

All the walking and climbing areas of Snowdonia are easily accessible from the Hut (around 15-20 mins to Llanberis Pass and Snowdon; 20-30 mins to the Ogwen valley; 30-40 mins to Tremadoc). The Dinorwic slate quarries are a couple of miles up the road.

Booking:

£16 for the weekend (Friday night and Saturday night) Please pay Alan in advance if possible.