

FEBRUARY MEET 2013 - SNOWDONIA NATIONAL PARK

The MKMC February 2013 meet will be a return to Chester Mountaineering Hut of Pen Ceunant Uchaf, (PCU) near Llanberis (Home of the famous Pete's Eates), North Wales during the weekend of February 14th/16th 2013.

The Hut can be found on the tourist path up Snowdon about 300m above Llanberis, Caenarfon. There is ample parking outside the hut. From the hut there are wonderful views across the valley to Moel Eileo and also across Llanberis pass to Elidir Fawr.

The accommodation consists of a common room, dining room, kitchen, male and female toilets and washing facilities, a shower and a drying room. The common room is heated by a coal fire, while the rest of the downstairs is heater by storage heaters. The dining room has tables and chairs.

The kitchen is fully equipped with a gas cooker, cooking hobs and microwave cookers. There are also fridges, kettles and toasters. All cutlery, crockery and cooking pot and utensils are present. Upstairs is a split dormitory that can accommodate 18 guests on Alpine style communal mattresses (sleeping bags are required). Off the kitchen is the drying doom, toilets and shower room.

There are a maximum of 18 places. Please reserve your place early (£7.50 per night).
