Waters Cottage is on the outskirts of Kinlochleven which is on the West Highland Way, a long-distance footpath from Milngavie in Glasgow to Fort William Kinlochleven has various amenities including several pubs, a Co-op, and fish and chip shop. There is also a museum in the visitor centre showing how the village developed around the aluminium smelting industry.

Hut Facilities

All buildings have food storage and cooking facilities appropriate to their capacity.

For information on the hut see https://frcc.co.uk/huts/waters-cottage

Mobile phone reception is good at Waters Cottage. There is a payphone on the way into town, 3 minutes walk from the hut.

There is a bus service (44) from Kinlochleven, passing through Glencoe, to Fort William. Times may also be checked on the Traveline Scotland and Stagecoach Highlands websites.

Activities

Kinlochleven is close to Mamore Mountains, Glen Coe and Ben Nevis providing a wide range of challenging climbs and stunning summit views across the Highlands.

Loan of Club Equipment

If you wish to borrow any of the Club equipment please arrange collection, and return, directly with our QuarterMaster via qm@mkmountaineering.org.

MKMC is an inclusive club; we want all members to enjoy their activities safely. Club members (and their guests) are reminded that it is their responsibility to inform members of the party that they go out with each day of any medical issues, which may have an impact on either the safety of the person with the condition, or the safety of the group they are with.
